DETAILED ITINERARY

About Wonder Cave

The Wonder Caves, located in the Bothongo Rhino and Lion Nature Reserve, were discovered by Italian miners in 1898. They mined calcite, which was used in cement, toothpaste, and gold extraction. Mining stopped in 1902 due to war and low productivity. The cave is the third largest in South Africa and is a UNESCO World Heritage Site, dating back 5-10 million years.

About Rhino & Lion Nature Reserve Safari

The Bothongo Rhino and Lion Nature Reserve is located in the Cradle of Humankind, north of Krugersdorp. It houses over 100 species of mammals, reptiles, and birds, and acts as a wildlife sanctuary. The reserve features a Wildlife Centre where animals are ambassadors of their species, often rescued, rejected, hand-reared, or rehabilitated. Visitors can see four of the big five, African wild dogs, cheetahs, tigers, zebras, roan antelope, and sable antelope. Depending on the day, visitors can experience lion, cheetah, and wild dog feeding times, snake shows, or vulture hides.
